

Chapter -1: Particulars of organization, functions and duties

Name of public authority: Convergence Energy Services Limited

1.	Date of incorporation	29/10/2020
2.	Mode of incorporation	Public Limited Company
3.	Administrative Machinery	Ministry of Power
4.	Present Status	Wholly owned Subsidiary of Energy Efficiency Services Limited Unlisted company
5.	Present Shareholding	100% shares held by Energy Efficiency Services Limited & its nominees
6.	Share Capital A) Authorized B) Issued, subscribed and paid-up	INR 1,00,00,00,000/- INR 59,21,01,000/-

Head of the organization (Functional Management):

Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer (CESL)

Address of Registered Office of the Company:

CONVERGENCE ENERGY SERVICES LIMITED (CESL), 9th Floor, Jeevan Prakash Building, 25, KG Marg, Connaught Place, Central Delhi, New Delhi, Delhi, India, 110001

Key objectives, functions and duties:

As per the Memorandum of Association of the company, the main objectives of the Company are as follows:

- A. To engage in the business of clean energy, energy efficiency, including mobile and stationary battery energy storage through either the provision of energy supply or energy services.
- B. To prepare, monetize, and hold carbon assets arising from clean energy generation, battery energy storage and/or energy efficiency.
- C. Provide consulting services in the field on clean energy, climate change, carbon markets, demand side management, clean technology, energy efficiency, climate change, and other related areas.
- D. To provide any and all of the above businesses anywhere in the world.

The vision and mission:

<https://www.convergence.co.in/about>

Functions and duties of public authority (general):

In general terms, Convergence Energy Services Limited (CESL) is engaged in investing in clean energy and clean transportation with a view to delivering affordable and reliable energy at scale. Business models followed by CESL focus on optimizing assets, monetizing and stacking multiple values and using innovative financial structures to deliver at scale. CESL is also working to enable battery powered electric mobility and its infrastructure and designing business models to increase the uptake of electric vehicles in India and increase rural energy access.

All the functions and duties of this public authority are based on this fundamental. The public authority has a duty to make available energy-efficient schemes and methodologies, which can be easily adopted by the general public, Governments or corporate houses to enhance and reduce their electrical consumption.

Details on Departments and Heads of Departments of the public authority:

Kindly refer Chapter 9 of the mandatory disclosures under the RTI section at <https://www.convergence.co.in/rti>

Organisational Chart

